DESIGN WEST

Design West attracts some of the top minds in the industry, assembling a collaborative team that raises the bar and consistently wins accolades and industry awards. But, in the end, our reputation relies on the level of personal attention given to every client. And each finished space must be as special as the stories that inspired it. Our unique, team-based approach ensures that every detail will be handled by a dedicated specialist with rigor, precision, and our well-known standard of integrity. It also means that more than one designer will always be listening when you speak—generating a wide range of ideas and ensuring that your finished space will reflect your aesthetic, personality, history, and lifestyle. We work directly with thousands of vendors—because a truly custom space cannot come from a single retail store and factory-direct procurement allows you to get the most from your investment. Our longstanding relationships with contractors and local artisans give you instant access to some of the best craftspeople in the business.
